

Tigers Are Looking Past the Navy Game to Battle With Virginia and Sweet Revenge for 1919

TIGERS STRONGER THAN REPORTS SAY

William Roper Will Meet Navy To-morrow With a Formidable Eleven.

EXPECT PASSING ATTACK

Midshipmen Not Likely to Make an Impression Through Line.

By DANIEL.
Football critics who went to Princeton yesterday afternoon as the luncheon guests of William Roper, the coach, and then saw the Tigers go through their paces heard a bit, saw a little more and were impressed a great deal. It became evident as the afternoon wore into the twilight that Princeton has a far stronger eleven than it cares folks to know it has—a far more powerful aggregation than the games thus far indicate. It is just rounding past mid-season form.

Many of Roper's best players who had been out with injuries are back in harness and will be ready to face the Navy to-morrow should they be called into the fray. Princeton feels that the Navy will not give it the sort of battle which had been expected after the eleven from Annapolis had beaten the Army last fall. Understand that is not the attitude. Roper, however, warned his men against overconfidence and the sort of fall they experienced against Colgate last season.

But the students do not seem to be worried greatly over the outcome of the game. They are looking ahead a week toward West Virginia. They owe the mountaineers a big debt—they have a score to settle with them, and every Tiger muscle and every Tiger brain will be strained to settle it.

The Tigers are a bit at sea, but to-morrow's game will give them the old game marks. Roper does not know just what to expect from Yale, nor how strong Harvard really is. They are sorry that Yale was beaten by Boston College—sorry for the sake of the Yale-Princeton game.

Expect Passing Attack.

Roper has made no great preparation for the midshipmen, most of them being fundamental ones. He seems to have developed a strong forward passing attack, certain features of which will not be used unless the Tigers are hard on the heels of the Navy. Roper has built up what he believes is an adequate defense against the barrage of passes which Bob Powell's pupils no doubt will throw against Princeton.

Analysis of the situation shows that the Navy is certain to resort mainly to the passing attack. Its line would not be equal to the task of playing the old game marks. The Tigers, even if the midshipmen were up to the form which they displayed against the Army last fall. Even that, it will be remembered, was nothing but a bluff, when it is realized that the Army forwards were green. The midshipmen will be up against a new style of play—particularly and play.

The last week has seen a number of changes in the Princeton line-up. Mike Callahan, the captain, is back at center, where he was very much needed. His return has made it possible for Roper to bring Thomas back to right guard, where he looms up stronger than Towers. McCaul has been at left guard, but Dickinson is about ready to resume his place, and the look for him to stand against the Navy. That will mean another big improvement at the center of the line.

At one tackle Roper has the reliable Keck, who will be far more useful if he becomes his tendency to be off side. The other tackle, Hooper, is holding his job by only a small margin over Halsey. Halsey is bigger, but Hooper is faster—another Princeton advantage. Roper is well fixed for ends with Raymond and Legendre, the first string pair. Legendre, playing in place of Stinson, who had been injured, put up a rattling game against Washington and stood out as one of the big figures in the easy victory.

Lourie has been given the quarterback job to have and to hold, while the other back, William Thompson, has been moved into first substitute quarter, with Gorman as third quarter. Wittmer has recovered from his injuries and is back at halfback. He is a class and a thrower of the ball. He looks like a better man than Gilroy.

The mystery man of the back field is Thompson, who to fall back at Occidental College in California he played on the line. Roper converted him into a fullback some weeks ago, and the big fellow immediately began to show signs of the notch class. He has all the qualities which a great fullback should have except experience at the position, and that is getting fast. We look for Thompson to be one of the big men in the Harvard and Yale games. He may not be shown against the Navy.

Roper certainly has a great array of backs, for in addition to those named he has Harry Scheuch, who has been hurt on the field; Cleaves, a new man, who is as fast as they come; Knox and Andrey. The scramble for the places is a hot and merry one. Roper hopes to have and to hold a class and a thrower of the ball. He looks like a better man than Gilroy.

Yale and Boston College.

In reply to R. E. McDonnell and Jack Mulahy, we want to state that we fail to find in anything which we have written a statement to the effect that Yale could well do without the Boston College game. That contest was a good thing for the Tigers, and we learned something just when it did them most good to learn it.

Yale will face another tough proposition to-morrow when it meets the Mountaineers at Princeton. The outlook is dark for Yale, but we would not say that it is hopeless. The Blue may spring a great surprise and knock the Mountaineers out of the game and the fight to stage such a comeback.

West Virginia will bring the heaviest line in captivity, with an average of more than 190 pounds. Setron, at left guard, tops the weights with a modest 204 pounds. Johnston, left tackle, scales at 202, and Quinn, right tackle, weighs 201. Harlick, right end, and the best football player on the team, scales at 194. It is interesting to note that eight of the first eleven West Virginians hail from West Virginia prep schools. The other three come from Pennsylvania.

West Virginia will practice at South Field this afternoon and will go to New Haven to-morrow morning. Princeton has a new sensation in Kinnear, who is said to be faster than Robb. Buzlok has signed a seven year contract with State.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

By DANIEL.
Copyright, 1920, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.
IN so far as football relations between the North and the South are concerned, to-morrow afternoon will see the attainment of the high water mark. Never before in the history of the game was there a North vs. South day to approach it. And we might add that never before have we had a season of intercollegiate competition to match that of 1920, which is a fine thing for the game and everybody concerned.

To-morrow the South will hold the centre of the football stage up this way. The principal intercollegiate battle will bring together Harvard and Centre College at Cambridge, Virginia will play at Rutgers, Virginia Military Institute will be entertained by Pennsylvania and West Virginia will visit the Yale Bowl. At Pittsburgh Georgia Tech will tackle Glenn Warren's Panthers. If you want to regard the Washington district as part of the South you may add the Fordham-Georgetown game in this city and the Lafayette-Catholic University affair at Easton to the list of intercollegiate conflicts.

The Harvard-Centre game is drawing away from the Princeton-Navy contest as the day's national feature. However, for those in this neck of the woods the meeting at Princeton will be the big magnet. When Princeton arranged the game with the midshipmen it counted on monopolizing the limelight for the day, but Harvard stepped in with a strong counter stroke and made the Princeton eleven for the same day. All of which makes things much merrier and far more interesting.

Princeton counts on at least twenty thousand onlookers at the game to-morrow, and it ought not to be disappointed. The game will provide the mid-season feature at Nassau, which used to be furnished by Dartmouth. We feel that it will prove a more attractive affair than the usual Dartmouth contest, for the Navy always brings out the crowds. Harvard is preparing for at least thirty thousand at the Centre game, while Yale is sure to have about twenty-five thousand at the battle with West Virginia. There were more than that number at the Boston College contest last Saturday. All members of the Big Three will engage in games which will have a strong bearing on the Eastern championship, and the day will be one of the biggest yet seen at midseason.

Many of Roper's best players who had been out with injuries are back in harness and will be ready to face the Navy to-morrow should they be called into the fray. Princeton feels that the Navy will not give it the sort of battle which had been expected after the eleven from Annapolis had beaten the Army last fall. Understand that is not the attitude. Roper, however, warned his men against overconfidence and the sort of fall they experienced against Colgate last season.

But the students do not seem to be worried greatly over the outcome of the game. They are looking ahead a week toward West Virginia. They owe the mountaineers a big debt—they have a score to settle with them, and every Tiger muscle and every Tiger brain will be strained to settle it.

The Tigers are a bit at sea, but to-morrow's game will give them the old game marks. Roper does not know just what to expect from Yale, nor how strong Harvard really is. They are sorry that Yale was beaten by Boston College—sorry for the sake of the Yale-Princeton game.

Expect Passing Attack.

Roper has made no great preparation for the midshipmen, most of them being fundamental ones. He seems to have developed a strong forward passing attack, certain features of which will not be used unless the Tigers are hard on the heels of the Navy. Roper has built up what he believes is an adequate defense against the barrage of passes which Bob Powell's pupils no doubt will throw against Princeton.

Analysis of the situation shows that the Navy is certain to resort mainly to the passing attack. Its line would not be equal to the task of playing the old game marks. The Tigers, even if the midshipmen were up to the form which they displayed against the Army last fall. Even that, it will be remembered, was nothing but a bluff, when it is realized that the Army forwards were green. The midshipmen will be up against a new style of play—particularly and play.

The last week has seen a number of changes in the Princeton line-up. Mike Callahan, the captain, is back at center, where he was very much needed. His return has made it possible for Roper to bring Thomas back to right guard, where he looms up stronger than Towers. McCaul has been at left guard, but Dickinson is about ready to resume his place, and the look for him to stand against the Navy. That will mean another big improvement at the center of the line.

At one tackle Roper has the reliable Keck, who will be far more useful if he becomes his tendency to be off side. The other tackle, Hooper, is holding his job by only a small margin over Halsey. Halsey is bigger, but Hooper is faster—another Princeton advantage. Roper is well fixed for ends with Raymond and Legendre, the first string pair. Legendre, playing in place of Stinson, who had been injured, put up a rattling game against Washington and stood out as one of the big figures in the easy victory.

Lourie has been given the quarterback job to have and to hold, while the other back, William Thompson, has been moved into first substitute quarter, with Gorman as third quarter. Wittmer has recovered from his injuries and is back at halfback. He is a class and a thrower of the ball. He looks like a better man than Gilroy.

The mystery man of the back field is Thompson, who to fall back at Occidental College in California he played on the line. Roper converted him into a fullback some weeks ago, and the big fellow immediately began to show signs of the notch class. He has all the qualities which a great fullback should have except experience at the position, and that is getting fast. We look for Thompson to be one of the big men in the Harvard and Yale games. He may not be shown against the Navy.

Roper certainly has a great array of backs, for in addition to those named he has Harry Scheuch, who has been hurt on the field; Cleaves, a new man, who is as fast as they come; Knox and Andrey. The scramble for the places is a hot and merry one. Roper hopes to have and to hold a class and a thrower of the ball. He looks like a better man than Gilroy.

Yale and Boston College.

In reply to R. E. McDonnell and Jack Mulahy, we want to state that we fail to find in anything which we have written a statement to the effect that Yale could well do without the Boston College game. That contest was a good thing for the Tigers, and we learned something just when it did them most good to learn it.

Yale will face another tough proposition to-morrow when it meets the Mountaineers at Princeton. The outlook is dark for Yale, but we would not say that it is hopeless. The Blue may spring a great surprise and knock the Mountaineers out of the game and the fight to stage such a comeback.

West Virginia will bring the heaviest line in captivity, with an average of more than 190 pounds. Setron, at left guard, tops the weights with a modest 204 pounds. Johnston, left tackle, scales at 202, and Quinn, right tackle, weighs 201. Harlick, right end, and the best football player on the team, scales at 194. It is interesting to note that eight of the first eleven West Virginians hail from West Virginia prep schools. The other three come from Pennsylvania.

West Virginia will practice at South Field this afternoon and will go to New Haven to-morrow morning. Princeton has a new sensation in Kinnear, who is said to be faster than Robb. Buzlok has signed a seven year contract with State.

YALE SCRUBS GIVE VARSITY DRUBBING

However, Some of the Regulars Are Kept Out by the Heat.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
NEW HAVEN, Oct. 21.—The Yale scrubs beat the varsity by three touchdowns to one in their exhibition game today, while the varsity won by a score of 14 to 0 in a game played on the side lines, however, and their absence weakened the first team.

Yale, who will play left halfback against West Virginia on Saturday, and Dickens, the left tackle, were out of the practice, while Thorne Murphy, who has supplanted Kempton at quarterback, played for only five minutes. The rest of the team was saved for the mountaineers. If the weather remains hot there will be but little work to-morrow.

Eddie Jones, the springy quarterback, who has come along fast during the last week, relieved Murphy and again demonstrated his ability to handle the first team. One of Jones' runs resulted in a touchdown. This was the only score by the varsity.

Yale expects a crowd of 25,000 at the game with West Virginia, equal to that which witnessed the Ell defeat at the hands and feet of Boston College. It is the biggest year for attendance Yale ever had, all records being broken.

The varsity started with Cutler at left end. This player is making a great bid for a regular berth on the team. Walker Buel at left tackle and Bean at right guard in place of Tom. Galvin filled Callahan's shoes. Herr was in the old place at right guard for a few moments and Wilcox at center. O'Brien played right tackle and Dilworth right end. Aside from Murphy, Campbell, Knapp and Strum comprised the back field.

Water in the practice Bob Lay and Peterson were moved from the second to the first team, receiving Campbell and Strum. Dutton was given a tryout at right end, and Harry Cross relieved Galvin at center. Dutton is a junior and played on Dr. Bull's team a year ago. He weighs 170 pounds.

The game with West Virginia, equal to that which witnessed the Ell defeat at the hands and feet of Boston College. It is the biggest year for attendance Yale ever had, all records being broken.

N. Y. U. ELEVEN READY.

Will Go to Clinton to Meet Hamilton To-morrow.

The New York University eleven held its final practice of the week at Ohio Field yesterday afternoon. The Violet team, which is expected to meet Hamilton at Clinton, N. Y., to-morrow, and went through its last practice in preparation for the hard game expected from the up-Staters.

At the end of a hard week's practice the Violet team appears to be in a favorable physical condition for to-morrow's game, having been bolstered in a number of places by the insertion of substitutes in the line and in the back field. The team is expected to be in a number of places by the insertion of substitutes in the line and in the back field. The team is expected to be in a number of places by the insertion of substitutes in the line and in the back field.

The players taken were: Captain Lents; Martin, Beck, Dawson, Simon, Hill, Lytle, Courtney and Hawkins; backs: Harlick, Meredith and Kiger; ends: Pucy and Emmswiler; centers: Johnson, Quinlan, Nicholson and Flanagan; tackles: and Setron, Kay, Crowe, Buchowski and Tallman, guards.

Coach McIntire expressed himself as well satisfied with the condition of the team. He said that the team, though he stated that he regards this year's West Virginia eleven below the standard set by the 1919 outfit.

All the leading players are fit for the game. Can we see the elusive halfback who will be largely depended upon for West Virginia's gains, has suffered no serious injury this season and is just as ready as ever to lead the team. Mountaineers' support is strong. The team is expected to be in a number of places by the insertion of substitutes in the line and in the back field.

The varsity lined up with Mallory and Galt; Green, ends; Pucy and Emmswiler; centers: Johnson, Quinlan, Nicholson and Flanagan; tackles: and Setron, Kay, Crowe, Buchowski and Tallman, guards.

Coach McIntire expressed himself as well satisfied with the condition of the team. He said that the team, though he stated that he regards this year's West Virginia eleven below the standard set by the 1919 outfit.

All the leading players are fit for the game. Can we see the elusive halfback who will be largely depended upon for West Virginia's gains, has suffered no serious injury this season and is just as ready as ever to lead the team. Mountaineers' support is strong. The team is expected to be in a number of places by the insertion of substitutes in the line and in the back field.

The varsity lined up with Mallory and Galt; Green, ends; Pucy and Emmswiler; centers: Johnson, Quinlan, Nicholson and Flanagan; tackles: and Setron, Kay, Crowe, Buchowski and Tallman, guards.

Coach McIntire expressed himself as well satisfied with the condition of the team. He said that the team, though he stated that he regards this year's West Virginia eleven below the standard set by the 1919 outfit.

All the leading players are fit for the game. Can we see the elusive halfback who will be largely depended upon for West Virginia's gains, has suffered no serious injury this season and is just as ready as ever to lead the team. Mountaineers' support is strong. The team is expected to be in a number of places by the insertion of substitutes in the line and in the back field.

The varsity lined up with Mallory and Galt; Green, ends; Pucy and Emmswiler; centers: Johnson, Quinlan, Nicholson and Flanagan; tackles: and Setron, Kay, Crowe, Buchowski and Tallman, guards.

Coach McIntire expressed himself as well satisfied with the condition of the team. He said that the team, though he stated that he regards this year's West Virginia eleven below the standard set by the 1919 outfit.

All the leading players are fit for the game. Can we see the elusive halfback who will be largely depended upon for West Virginia's gains, has suffered no serious injury this season and is just as ready as ever to lead the team. Mountaineers' support is strong. The team is expected to be in a number of places by the insertion of substitutes in the line and in the back field.

The varsity lined up with Mallory and Galt; Green, ends; Pucy and Emmswiler; centers: Johnson, Quinlan, Nicholson and Flanagan; tackles: and Setron, Kay, Crowe, Buchowski and Tallman, guards.

Coach McIntire expressed himself as well satisfied with the condition of the team. He said that the team, though he stated that he regards this year's West Virginia eleven below the standard set by the 1919 outfit.

HARVARD EXPECTS TO DEFEAT CENTRE

Crimson Supporters Are Confident as to Outcome of To-morrow's Game.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 21.—Confidence in the air at Harvard today, but that is later learned that the two players agreed between themselves that the match should be purely an exhibition affair. The match was won by Concanon by a score of 10 to 0.

As a remedy, Mr. Duval seems to recover $300 paid by him to Greenleaf following the match.

Mr. Duval claims that at the time of the match he was given to understand that the title was to be passed in case of his defeat by Concanon. The entire varsity team took part in today's scrimmage and no change is expected in the line-up for Saturday.

Munns and Gounillock were at the wing positions, with Knauss and Dodge at tackle; Pendleton and Miner, guards; Brayton, center, and Carey, Kaw, Mayer and Jewett in the back field. This is the same team which defeated Union last week and will be used Saturday.

It was close to 7 o'clock before the players were permitted to leave the field, and during the four hours' workout they were drilled in the use of the open formations and on the defense against these plays as well.

Dunleavy, a ransy back, who has been out of the game since the first of the season, got into the practice and succeeded in making some substantial gains against the first team. He is unusually fast and hits the line with a smash. Doble is grooming him for a back field berth, and it is likely that before the season ends he will be on the first team.

Graduate Manager Berry announced today that less than 300 reserved seats remain to be sold, and it is expected that the game will attract 12,000 persons will be on hand to witness the fray.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Greenleaf Sued Owing to Championship Mix Up

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Oct. 21.
CHARLES of fraud and deceit against Ralph Greenleaf, pocket billiard champion, are made by R. E. Duval in a Supreme Court action started by him as a result of a pocket billiard match played between the champion and Joseph Concanon in this city, August 16, 17 and 18.

Mr. Duval claims that at the time of the match he was given to understand that the title was to be passed in case of his defeat by Concanon. The entire varsity team took part in today's scrimmage and no change is expected in the line-up for Saturday.

Munns and Gounillock were at the wing positions, with Knauss and Dodge at tackle; Pendleton and Miner, guards; Brayton, center, and Carey, Kaw, Mayer and Jewett in the back field. This is the same team which defeated Union last week and will be used Saturday.

It was close to 7 o'clock before the players were permitted to leave the field, and during the four hours' workout they were drilled in the use of the open formations and on the defense against these plays as well.

Dunleavy, a ransy back, who has been out of the game since the first of the season, got into the practice and succeeded in making some substantial gains against the first team. He is unusually fast and hits the line with a smash. Doble is grooming him for a back field berth, and it is likely that before the season ends he will be on the first team.

Graduate Manager Berry announced today that less than 300 reserved seats remain to be sold, and it is expected that the game will attract 12,000 persons will be on hand to witness the fray.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Maroon have won four games out of the last five played, the other being a tie.

Records show that of nineteen games played this year, White has defeated Colgate thirteen times. Two games have resulted in no score ties and the other four have been won by the Maroon. The Mar